

Canterbury Hills Camp 2010 Unit Leader Positions

Application Deadline: February 12
Applicants must reserve 9:30am to 3pm
Saturday March 6 for the Hiring Process

The best job in the world is being a leader at camp. The most important job at camp is working with the campers on a daily basis. At Canterbury Hills Camp the people doing that meaningful job are the Residential Cabin Leaders and Day Camp Unit Leaders.

The responsibility and trust placed in our Unit Leaders is immense and requires individuals with the energy, skills & mature attitude to make the summer full of special memories. We are seeking individuals who are looking to explore their own leadership potential, to learn, to grow, and to be challenged.

Benefits include:

- Summer Salary between $1500-$2000, based on skills & experience
- Meals & accommodation provided during training events & all required work time
- A fun & challenging work environment full of learning

Mandatory Training Events

May Training Weekend: May 28 – 30, 2010
June Training Week: June 26 – July 2, 2010

Send applications to:
Canterbury Hills Camp Staff Applications
P.O. Box 81089 Fid. Grn.,
Ancaster, ON,
L9G 4X1
Phone: 905-648-2712 Fax: 905-648-3268
Email: ch@niagara.anglican.ca

Day Camp Unit Leader

- Day Camp Leaders work with campers ages 5-10 years
- Each Day Camp Unit includes 2 Day Camp Leaders, a Leader-In-Training and 10 campers. Together the Unit plans the schedule for their time at camp including special events for the whole camp
- Staff are responsible for safety, supervision, and leading of activities with the campers
- Additional Day Camp Leaders provide 1:1 support and integration for campers with physical and/or developmental needs
- Daily duties run weekly Monday to Friday, from 8:15am to 6pm, with an overnight on Thursday
- Time off - evenings (except Thursdays) & weekends
- Minimum age requirement: 16 years old by Dec. 31, 2010

Residential Cabin Leader

- Cabin Leaders work with campers ages 7-15 years
- Sessions range from 5-8 nights in length
- Each Unit lives, eats and does daily activities together
- Cabin Units are arranged based on gender, age, and individual camper requests
- Each Unit includes 2 Cabin Leaders, a Leader-In-Training and 8 campers. Together the entire Unit plans their schedule for their time at camp, including special events for the whole camp, chapel and campfires
- Cabin Leaders are responsible for safety, supervision, and leading of activities with the campers
- Additional Residential Cabin Leaders provide 1:1 support and integration of campers with physical and/or developmental needs
- Time off – between camp sessions
- Minimum age requirement: 17 years old by Dec. 31, 2010

As a Unit Leader you are required to:

- Hold current Standard First Aid & CPR (or complete prior to the start of June Training)
- Provide a Police Reference Check
- Be present and participate fully in mandatory pre-camp training events
- Commit to work the entire camp season