Day Camp LIT Program

- Ideal leadership experience for young people from the communities immediately around Canterbury Hills
- Daily duties run weekly Monday to Friday, from 8am to 6pm, with an overnight on Thursday
- Minimum age requirement: 15 years of age by Dec. 31, 2012

	Half Summer (July)*	Full Summer
Day Camp LIT	$200	$350

* All LITs must attend May and June Training

Residential LIT I & II Program

- Full Summer residential LIT Program is highlighted by an Adventure Experience that is planned by the group of LITs. The adventure may take a variety of forms, but it is intended to be a significant challenge that will incorporate all the skills learned throughout the summer
- Half Summer LITs will not participate in the Adventure Experience
- Minimum age requirement:

LIT I: 15 years of age by Dec. 31, 2012

LIT II: 16 years of age by Dec. 31, 2012

	Half Summer (July)*	Full Summer
LIT I	$750	$1000
LIT II	Only available for Full Summer	$750

* All LITs must attend May and June Training

When applying for a position as an LIT please consider the following:

- You may apply without previously having been a camper or an LIT
- Being an LIT is excellent preparation for a position as a Day Camp Leader, Residential Cabin Leader, or school, parish & community leadership
- The residential LIT program has been designed as a two-summer experience for the full development of leadership skills
- Canterbury Hills does not guarantee that a position as an LIT will result in being offered a staff position in subsequent summers
